

New Look, Same Team and Service

Dear Valued Clients and Colleagues,

We are very excited to announce that, going forward, Advanced Depositions and HG Litigation will jointly operate as: AdvancedONE Legal

Please rest assured that while our name and look will be new, everything else – senior leadership, client service teams, best-in-class court reporters, industry-leading deposition technology, as well as ownership – remain the same.

Since HG Litigation joined Advanced Depositions in 2019, bringing together 75+ years of combined court reporting industry experience, the two companies have operated as one reporting company, utilizing our coast-to-coast personnel, offices, and infrastructure. Our new, unified name and look is the final step in reflecting our shared future vision.

As AdvancedONE Legal, we commit to continue providing you with the collective experience of our client-focused team, our nationwide locations and resources, and the most advanced court reporting technologies. For more information, please visit our new website www.AdvancedONE.com or email info@AdvancedONE.com

During this exciting time for us, we want to thank you, our loyal clients and business associates, for your continued support.

We look forward to serving you as AdvancedONE Legal!

Sincerely,

The AdvancedONE Team
